Art 2: May I make the IP club,
Ms. Maizono?

School IP Club (applying)

Well, there can't be such a club
in our school.

After all it seems that there is no club
that can utilize
the license of the patent attorney.

If you don't have
the club you want to join,
you should establish yourself
the club you want to join.

But, if you give up here,
this story is over.

Now now
I've never said
there are such clubs.

Oh, please don't make me expect it from you.

May I come in?

Could I talk to
Ms. Maizono?

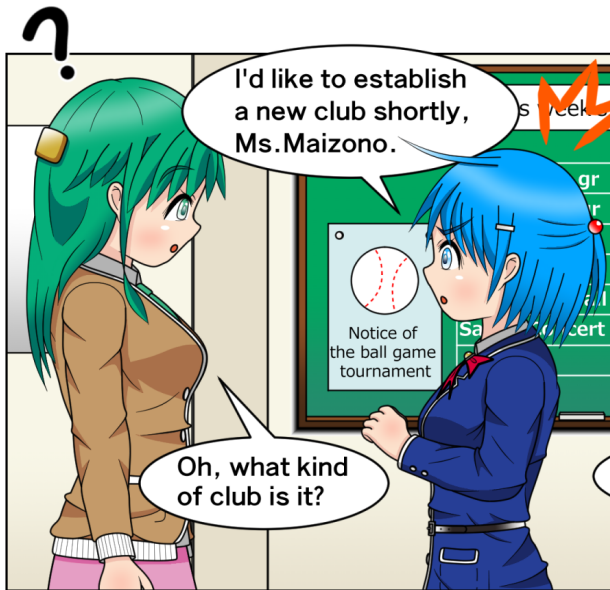

Hey!
Wait a minute.

Alright, Misube-chan!

I'll consult with
Ms. Maizono!!

The beret is about to fall!!

I'd like to establish a new club shortly, Ms. Maizono.

Oh, what kind of club is it?

Hi, Ms. Nonodate (with the bouncing hair), and Ms. Yokoshimo (with the beret).

What happened to you in such a hurry?

As various Japanese intellectual property law stipulates, the purposes of our club are...

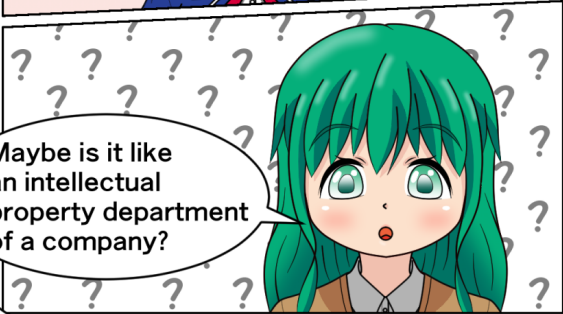

the contribution of "the development of industry" (Patent Act Art.1), and...

the contribution of "the development of culture" (Copyright Act Art.1),

Yes, It's "an intellectual property (IP) club".

Maybe is it like an intellectual property department of a company?

I'll explain it to you.

Um...

Specifically, what purpose does the club act?

I don't understand a bit.

Briskly!

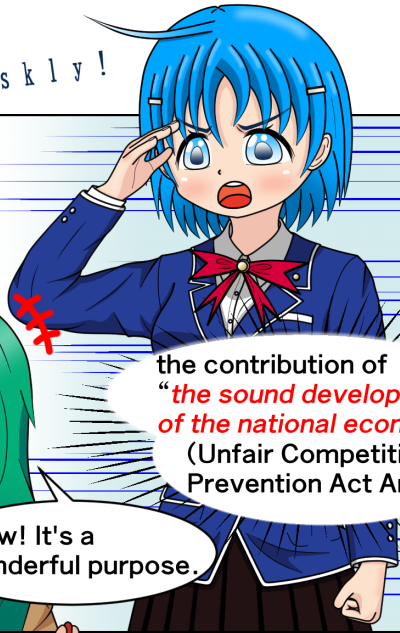

Briskly!

In addition, we'll sing, dance, and become idols of this school.

Your story seems to be a story of Japanese recent animation works...

Wow! It's a wonderful purpose.

the contribution of "the sound development of the national economy" (Unfair Competition Prevention Act Art.1).

Hmm

I apologize, Ms. Maizono.

She has a habit of suddenly falling into a delusion. So, she sometimes confuses realities and animation works.

ACK!

Be quiet for a while!!

POW

Zap

So, I said "Please wait".

This is the application form.

So, you should collect 5 proposers of the club and come again.

Take care, Ms. Yokoshimo.

Aside from that, the purpose of the club is very wonderful.

Continue to Art. 3.
